JSfirm.com Announces Job Distribution Partnership with Saint Vincent College's Aviation Management - Professional Pilot Program

Roanoke, Texas (September 16, 2025) - JSfirm.com is excited to announce a new partnership with Saint Vincent College and their Aviation Management - Professional Pilot program.

This collaboration will spotlight career opportunities specifically in Aviation Management and Pilot Fixed-Wing jobs, offering students and alumni direct access to a growing network of aviation employers.

Saint Vincent College's Aviation Management - Professional Pilot program, students can earn a BS in aviation management – professional pilot plus an associate's degree and a commercial pilot's license, all in four years or less.

"This partnership underscores the importance of preparing students not only with the right education, but also with direct access to aviation career opportunities," said Abbey Hutter, Executive Director of JSfirm.com. "This partnership allows us to emphasize Saint Vincent College's aviation program while helping graduates step directly into Aviation Management and Pilot Fixed-Wing careers."

"The Aviation Management - Professional Pilot program does a great job of preparing our students in business and piloting. We are so thrilled to work with JSfirm to help our exceptional students learn about exciting opportunities in their field," said Michael J. Urick, PhD, MBA, MS, SSGB, SHRM-CP, Dean of the Alex G. McKenna School of Business, Economics, and Government
